RRTC on Community Living: Operational Model

Core Area A: Secondary Data Analysis

R-1: Housing and Transportation Access in the American Housing Survey
R-2: Time Use among People with Disabilities
R-3: Relation of Sociodemographics and Local Characteristics to Community Participation/Living
R-4: Multiple Chronic Conditions and Healthcare Access Disparities
R-5: Does VR Effectively Support Community Living?
R-6: Personal and Environmental Factors Influencing Community Living for People with

Core Area B: Interventions

Disabilities

R-7: Health Navigator Initiative
R-8: Development and Testing of an Informal PA Skill Building Program
R-9: Fair Housing Compliance
Assessment and Advocacy
R-10: Community Engagement Initiative
KT Research
R-11: Building Capacity for Full
Community Participation

Systematic Scoping Reviews

SSR-1: A Systematic Scoping Review of the Literature on Risk Factors for Institutionalization

SSR-2: Extending a Systematic Scoping Review of the Literature on Healthcare Use and Receipt of Clinical Preventive Services by People with Disabilities Core Area C: Knowledge Translation

Training: Stand-alone; research capacity building; project-specific; academic; and Center-wide (online instructional formats, use of social media, etc.)

Dissemination: Standalone events; Center-wide products (peer-reviewed publications, fact sheets, research briefs, newsletters, Internet resources, etc.) and delivery mechanisms (online instructional formats, social media, videos, etc.)

Technical Assistance:

Investigator-provided consultative information and referral; investigator follow-up; Center-wide (virtual assistance center, needs surveys, etc.)

Systematic Scoping Reviews

RRTC/CL Stakeholders

Researchers

Policymakers

People with disabilities

Services providers

CILs

Advocacy organizations

Rehab professionals

Public agencies