Core Area A: Secondary Data Analysis

- R-1: Housing and Transportation Access in the American Housing Survey
- R-2: Time Use among People with Disabilities
- R-3: Relation of Sociodemographics and Local Characteristics to Community Participation/Living
- R-4: Multiple Chronic Conditions and Healthcare Access Disparities
- R-5: Does VR Effectively Support Community Living?
- R-6: Personal and Environmental Factors Influencing Community Living for People with Disabilities

Core Area B: Interventions

- R-7: Health Navigator Initiative
- R-8: Development and Testing of an Informal PA Skill Building Program
- R-9: Fair Housing Compliance Assessment and Advocacy
- R-10: Community Engagement Initiative
- R-11: Building Capacity for Full Community Participation

Core Area C: Knowledge Translation

Training: Stand-alone; research capacity building; project-specific; academic; and Center-wide (online instructional formats, use of social media, etc.)

Dissemination: Stand-alone events; Center-wide products (peer-reviewed publications, fact sheets, research briefs, newsletters, Internet resources, etc.) and delivery mechanisms (online instructional formats, social media, videos, etc.)

Technical Assistance: Investigator-provided consultative information and referral; investigator follow-up; Center-wide (virtual assistance center, needs surveys, etc.)

Systematic Scoping Reviews

SSR-1: A Systematic Scoping Review of the Literature on Risk Factors for Institutionalization
SSR-2: Extending a Systematic Scoping Review of the Literature on Healthcare Use and Receipt of Clinical Preventive Services by People with Disabilities

RRTC/CL Stakeholders

Researchers
Policymakers
People with disabilities
Services providers
CILs
Advocacy organizations
Rehab professionals
Public agencies